ABOUT COMPASS:

Compass Family Services supports low-income and homeless families with a continuum of services that create lifelong change.

Our six programs help parents stay in a home or find and keep one, gain meaningful employment, and raise physically and emotionally healthy children.

Each year, we empower more than 3,000 of our neighbors to find their way to lasting self-sufficiency. For more information visit www.compass-sf.org.

No Child Wants to Be Homeless for Halloween

Donate a costume and help a homeless child's imagination set sail.

Helping families celebrate special occasions is important. It's about giving homeless and extremely low-income parents a chance to spend time with their children outside of the stress of their everyday lives and giving disadvantaged children the same experiences and childhood memories as their peers.

Last year Compass helped 266 children express their inner ghoul, superhero and princess.

Costume donations should be:

- New (or good as new)
- For children of all ages
- Not too scary, please!

Your support will make sure that Compass' youngest clients don't miss out on one of childhood's greatest joys.

You may prefer to shop for costumes online and ship them directly to Compass. Online retailers Cheap Halloween Costumes and Costume Discounters both have reasonably priced costumes that are very popular.

Our shipping address is:

Compass Family Services
995 Market Street, 5th floor
San Francisco, CA 94103
